TROUBLED IRELAND.

BELFAST CLAIMS "GLORIOUS VICTORY."

ANOTHER SKIRMISH ANTICIPATED.

LONDON, June 6.
The citizens of Belfast to-day are very cheerful, hailing the Pettigo affair as "a glorious victory" and anticipating the speedy expulsion of the irregulars from their stronghold at the Belleek salient where the task of the British troops is more formidable as the Belleek triangle is not merely more extensive but more easily defended. The base extends eight miles along the Northern shore of Lough Erne. An ancient fort situated in Donegal garrisoned by irregulars and flying a green flag commands the town of Belleek. Belfast people claim that it is impossible for Ulster to exercise authority over Belleek while irregulars hold the fort. Stout resistance is expected as the defenders lost no time in building sandbag defences against the pipequels which damaged the morale of the defenders of Pettigo.

THE IRISH ELECTION.

LONDON, June 6.
Surprises contained in the Irish nominations now being received will be the contests for Dublin City, Dublin County, and the National University. The pro-treatyite Darrell Figgis, secretary of the constitution drafting committee appears as an independent candidate for County Dublin where Johnson, secretary of the Irish Labour Party is also standing. Alderman O'Neill, Lord Mayor of Dublin, T.D. Dermot and Alfred Byrne (formerly a member of the House of Commons) who are pro-treatyites are both standing as unattached independents for the middle division of Dublin City. The full number of coalition candidates who are all sitting members, including the Countess Markiewicz, has nominated for each of the Dublin constituencies.

LATER.

The Irish nominations show that with the exception of De Valera, Stack, Finlan Lynch and Beaslet every Dail leader, pro-treaty or anti-treaty will have to go to the poll. De Valera (owing to the withdrawal of four independents) secured a walkover in County Clare. Thirty of the present Dail members have been re-elected in six uncontested constituencies.

CONTINENTAL ROYAL WEDDING.

DUKE OF YORK AT BELGRADE.

BELGRADE, June 6.
Dense crowds at the station approached welcomed the Royalties arriving for the wedding of Princess Mary of Roumania and King Alexander of Jugo Slavia, including the Duke of York. Notabilities on the platform included King Alexander, who warmly greeted the Duke of York. Subsequently the Duke of York drove in the same carriage as the King through cheering crowds in the streets to the palace. A constant stream of boats is arriving with crowded visitors. A big steamer with the Royal delegation and a military band leaves tomorrow to meet the Royal bride, while three seaplanes will meet the Royal yacht bringing their Rumanian Majesties at Dubravica and head the procession to Belgrade.

SOVIETS AND THE CHURCH.

BIG HAULS OF GOLD AND JEWELS.

LONDON, June 6.
In addition to the protest against the Soviets persecution of the Church mentioned on May 31, some ecclesiastical authorities in Britain are endeavoring to ascertain the possibility of sending a representative to Moscow to attend the trial of Tikhon. Moscow announces the arrests of the Metropolitan of Petrograd and the Archbishops of Mohileff and Irkutsk. It adds that Church treasures appropriated for the purposes of famine relief in forty-two provinces up to May 25 included 700 lbs. of gold, 460,000 lbs. of silver, 13,600 diamonds, 3,800 pearls and 30,000 other jewels.

VIGOROUS AMERICAN PROTEST.

New York, June 7.
The Episcopal church of the United States has cabled Lenin entering a vigorous protest against the attack on the whole Russian church in the person of Tikhon declaring that the christ's conscience of America cannot tolerate such a wrong.

GERMANY AND RUSSIA.

PARIS, June 7.
A message from Moscow states that members of the German consulate and also a party of German trade representatives have arrived in Petrograd and are already in touch with Russian industrial and agricultural organs.

REPARATIONS TANGLE.

GORDIAN KNOT FOR LLOYD GEORGE.

PARIS, June 6.
The calming European waters have been again troubled by the announcement of the postponement of to-day's meeting of the Reparations Commission to discuss a reduction of the German indemnity. Behind the postponement is believed to be a deadlock between the international bankers committee and the allied Governments, on the subject of the granting of a loan to Germany whereon Germany's recently promised reforms were made conditional. The bankers evidence a disinclination to father a large loan while the present high figure of the reparations prejudices the chances of its repayment and France as the largest beneficiary under the reparations does not consent to a reduction of her claims without corresponding advantages the nature of which is at present unrevealed.

BRENN N'S AIR INVENTION.

REPORTS OF SUCCESS SLIGHTLY PREMATURE.

LONDON, June 6.
The newspaper reports of the success of the Brennan helicopter (see early cables) were apparently premature. Mr. Brennan in an interview at Alderhot said the machine had not yet been out of the shed and would not be tested till the autumn. It was impossible to tell from experiments with a model whether a full-size machine would fulfil the Air Ministry's conditions. The Star, however, learns that while the Air Ministry does not yet consider the machine perfected, remarkable progress has been made towards solving the problem of vertical flight.

LATER.

It is officially stated that the Air Ministry's offer of $50,000 reward for a successful helicopter is still open.

HENRY FORD'S LATEST.

SELF-STARTER FOR PRESIDENCY.

DETROIT, June 6.
It is stated that Henry Ford has privately intimated that he would be willing to stand for the Presidency if the people of the United States desired, but he would not spend any money to bring about nomination or election.

JAPANESE CABINETS RESIGNATION.

LONDON, June 6.
The announcement that Tokyo's cabinet has resigned follows reports that the Diet took the unprecedented step of unanimously passing a resolution instructing the military authorities drastically to cut down expenditure.

ENGINEERING SHOPS RE-OPEN.

BUT NOT MUCH WORK YET.

LONDON, June 6.
Following the ballot amongst the forty seven unions in favour of resumption of work the engineering works on the Clyde and in other districts reopened to day but comparatively few men were engaged as sufficient work will not be available for the majority for two or three months.

AEROPLANE DISASTER.

BROTHER'S WARNING UNHEEDED.

LONDON, June 6.
Carnoll, the victim in the Channel aeroplane disaster was a French business man, whom his brother vainly tried to dissuade from flying to Paris. His brother was aboard the cross channel steamer which went to render assistance.

POISONED SWEETS.

STRANGE BELFAST STORY.

A remarkable story was told in the Belfast Police court, when Mrs. Ellen Whan, a well-dressed woman of middle age, was again charged with having within the past twelve months attempted to murder Mrs. Agnes Walker by sending to her through the post chocolates which, when analysed, were found to contain poison—oxalic acid.

In the witness box Mrs. Walker said she was a widow when she married
Mr. Walker, her first husband's name being Wallace. She married Mr.
Walker in February last year, and from the time she met him first and until the beginning of the month, when the prisoner was arrested, she received a large number of letters, while other letters in the same handwriting came to her house addressed to her husband. The letters were signed in three ways, "Ellen Whan," "E.
Whan," or "E. W." In one letter
there was the following passage:

"Mrs. Walker, this is your last warning. I will have my revenge. If I was near your tea you would soon go.
In the following letter, addressed to her husband, there were these words:
Oh, Jack, if you cannot get her to eat the chocolates do let me know, and I will shoot her. They would think it was the Sinn Feiners. Oh, Jack, come to me, for God's sake."
From your old love,

Ellen Whan.

In another letter the writer, referring to a picture of a coffin in the newspaper, said:

"This is where you will be not later than the end of the week. When you are lying in this I will get him."

Three days later there came another letter to her husband, with the following:

"I am mad jealous of her. I will take her life. Oh, Jack, when she is sleeping just put your finger behind her ear and press it. That will do for her, and I will come to you."

JEALOUSY.

In a further letter the writer said:
"He (Jack) would have married me only for you, so that the sooner you are out of the way the better."

After her marriage to Mr. Walker
the accused came to the house twice.
On the first occasion she did not get in,
but stood outside the gate with her bag, and when witnesses came out the accused, addressing her boy and giving him her umbrella, said:

"Norman, that is her; make no mistake." The boy struck witness over the head with the umbrella. On the second occasion she got into the house and demanded £20, which she said was for keeping a child belonging to a woman who had married her husband.

IBSEN'S SPIRIT.

WRITING A BOOK THROUGH A MEDIUM.

It is claimed that the spirit of Henrik Ibsen, the Norwegian playwright, has revealed itself to a woman in Copenhagen and through her started the writing of a book.

The woman is Mrs. Pauline Kalmer Frisch, a widow and a native of Norway, who has been married twice.
Mrs. Kalmers Frisch declares that her faculties as a medium developed without her knowing how. She began automatic writing, using the left hand as well as the right.

"One day," she says, "my hand suddenly began drawing. I had never been taught, and the result was a strange fantastic drawing. Some time after I was visited by a woman who is the wife of the director of a Norwegian museum. When she saw the drawing she said: 'This is one of the famous child's drawings by Henrik Ibsen which we are collecting for the museum.'"

Questioned as to the book which Henrik Ibsen, according to her, is writing, she replied: "So far as I can see, it will be a series of communications with reference to the phases of development beyond the grave and to reincarnation."

That was not true. Between October last year and January of the present year witness received by post three boxes of chocolates, but she handed them all over to the analyst.

Mr. Totten, analyst, giving evidence, said he received from the previous witness three boxes containing chocolates, which he analysed. Fifteen of the sweets in the first box were painted over with a light substance which he collected and found to be oxalic acid. The total quantity was sixty grains. Oxalic acid was a form of poison, and a poisonous dose would be 238. One of the sweets would make a person seriously ill. In the second box match heads had been inserted into a number of the chocolates, but the phosphor was not poisonous. In the third box the inner part of some of the sweets had been removed and broken glass and cinders inserted. If one of these sweets had been eaten the consequences would be serious, as the tissues of the stomach would be injured.

Cross examined, the sweets were tampered with in a crude manner, and anyone could see that they were tampered with.

Prisoner, who laughed and smiled during the evidence, was again remanded on her bail.

TRIBAL LAW.

AN AUSTRALIAN ABORIGINE'S
VENGEANCE.

Remarkable circumstances surround the committal for murder of an aborigine named Wongacura, aged 35, who has just been tried at the Port Augusta criminal sittings, says
the Sydney Sun.

Some months ago at Deepa, many miles from Oodnadatta, Wongacura lost his labra and two picannies by death following upon disease.

It was considered, according to tribal law, that this happening was due to witchcraft. Wongacura placed the blame on a labra named Konica, whom he tracked for several days through the bush, and killed with a yam stick early in January.

Mounted Constable Fox stationed at Oodnadatta, set out with another trooper and a tracker after Wongacura. The way led through long stretches of waterless country, and after a fortnight's search the fugitive was caught near Blood's Creek.

Two station owners joined in the hunt, but the black offered no resistance, because, he said, if the Government did not take him the other black fellows probably would.

Wongacura piloted the police to the scene of the tragedy, which necessitated six days travelling. The skull of the labra and the broken stick were secured.

The trooper's water was nearly gone and the black refused to lead the party to it. He was brought to his senses, however, when his water supply was cut off, for as soon as he became thirsty he led the police across the ranges to a waterhole, where they filled their bags. Oodnadatta was reached without further trouble.

In passing sentence of death, Judge Poole said he would make a strong recommendation to mercy to the proper authorities in consideration of the fact that Wongacura committed the crime in accordance with tribal law.

EARLIER TELEGRAMS.

(Butler's Service to the China Mail.)

LIGHT CRUISER "DESPATCH" FOR CHINA STATION.

LONDON, June 5th.
The light cruiser "Despatch" will be commissioned for trials by Captain Robert Hamilton, after which the "Despatch" will relieve the "Cerberus" on the China Station.
The latter ship, "Dionide", is also preparing for service on the China Station.

BIG STRIDE IN AERONAUTICS.

LONDON, June 5th.
A far-reaching step in the history of aeronautics has been registered by the complete success of the tests conducted on the British Brennan Helicopter. The work at South Farnborough was carried out with the greatest secrecy, paralleled only in the case of the invention of tanks.
The machine will be invaluable for military purposes, as it is able to hover stationary, and almost invisibly. It will also render unnecessary the big taking-off ground.
The Air Ministry is now not likely to pursue its proposal to offer a prize of £50,000 for a helicopter fulfilling the conditions, as published last January.

COMPLAINT AGAINST U.S.A.
STERIL MERGER.

WASHINGTON, June 5th.
As a sequel to the merger of the Bethlehem and Lehigh Valley Steel Companies, mentioned in cable messages on May 11th and 12th, the Federal Trade Commission has issued a formal complaint, covering a charge of unfair methods of competition.

THE SITUATION IN IRELAND.

LONDON, June 5th.
The Pettigo affair has revived acute party differences. London conservative organs applaud the operation as a salutary example to the rebels, but the liberals are apprehensive that it may develop into a new war for the reconquest of Ireland, and counsel patience.
In view of the difficulties of inexperienced statesmen dealing with a most complex situation.
The South-Irish official version says that Pettigo is in the Free State, except portion of one street, and denies that the Free State forces were the first to fire on the British troops. On the contrary, the South-Irish official version declares that as the congregation was leaving mass on Sunday, shells burst in the adjacent hills, and immediately afterwards the British rushed the town with armoured cars. They ordered the Free State troops to evacuate the town, which they did, but while retreating the "troops" were fired on.

JAPANESE POLITICS.

TOKYO, June 5th.
The Cabinet has decided to resign.
The Premier proceeded to the Palace
this morning and tendered the resignation of himself and his colleagues, but was ordered to retain office for the present.
The decision to resign was made at this morning's meeting of the council, when the Premier invited opinions and proposed a reconstruction, but the Minister of Education and the Minister of Railways are still holding out.
The Premier announced his decision to give up office, and all the Ministers agreed to this.

SINGAPORE, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 7, 1922

OUR PHONES AND OUR GOVERNMENT.

Like mothers-in-law and the food at a boarding-house, the telephone is frigid. It is a tradition to speak unkindly of it. The Shanghai service got severe criticism at the annual meeting of the Company last week, and here, as we all know, our Hongkong telephone company is being belaboured by grumblers in the Press. But here the complaint for the moment refers more to proposed charges than to the quality of the service. It is said, not only that the proposed increased charges are too high, but that they should not be made at all, because the costs they are to cover should come out of capital expenditure. We need not touch upon the incidental arguments that have arisen, as to what percentage the increase really represents and as to how our rates compare with those charged at other places. We need not discuss the points already mentioned. There is a much bigger point involved, for allusion to which we have been waiting in vain in this voluminous mass of criticism. We submit that the telephone company is not under any obligation to reply to any criticism at all in this connection; or if it desires to do so, that it has a complete answer. The critics have all been barking up the wrong tree. For what the company is doing, and proposes to do, our own Government accepts responsibility, or at least cannot repudiate it. As guarantors of our interests in the matter, the Government has made a bargain with the Company. The Company, naturally concerned chiefly with the interests of its shareholders, will have made the best bargain it could. If it has got the better of the bargain, the public must address its complaints to the Government. Here was a case where, before bargaining, the Government might well have sought advice. It will surely be said that it did. We shall then ask whose? The opinions of the "phone users were never ascertained, as a Commission or a referendum could have ascertained them. The public that is satisfied with the form of its government must be satisfied with what that government does for it on its behalf. If it is satisfied with a government whose acts it has no power to call in question, or to oppose, it is foolish to "kick against the pricks." If it is not satisfied, it is wiser to concentrate against the power that can do objectionable things, than against the objectionable things it does. In effect, this means that if all the feelings betrayed by the letters of complaint against the Telephone Company had been directed in favour of some measure of constitutional reform—such as the provision of an elective municipal council with power over purely municipal affairs—it would have looked more intelligent. The gesture of Ajax defying the lightning may have been magnificent, but it was not practical politics. What is to be gained by attacking a corporation which is in a position to reply: "The terms and conditions to which you object were passed by your own executive?"

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Dr. George Michaelis, who since leaving China has been confined at the German Embassy in Tokyo seriously ill, will leave for the United States on the "Tenyo Maru" to study the prohibition question.

The Municipal Council has granted the Freedom of the City of Athens to Mr. T. P. O'Connor, M.P., as a sign of gratitude for his efforts in Parliament for the protection of the life of Christians and of Greek rights in Anatolia.

A small Belgian Business Men's Delegation, consisting of probably six persons, is planning to visit Japan some time in the autumn. The mission will represent about six of the different industries of Belgium, namely steel and iron, paper, glass and textiles, and will also visit China, the Philippine Islands and Siam.

Mr. R. S. Carvin, Manager of the Travel Department of the American Express Company in the Far East, has left Shanghai for America in order to complete arrangements for the cruise of the "Laconia" which will sail from New York in the autumn. Mr. J. P. Bourne, who has recently been in charge of the office in Peking, replaces Mr. Carvin in Shanghai.

Sir Arthur Adams, K.B.E., who proceeded home some two years ago, arrived by the "Kashima" in Peking looking extremely well. He was met on board by some members of the Peking Bar, of which he is a prominent member, and a few old friends with whom he conversed freely. He was garlanded by the head of a Mohammedan family whose solicitor Sir Arthur had been for a number of years.

A Deputation of hungry unemployed men created a scene at a meeting of the New Board of Guardians recently, when they burst into the board-room headed by a bra brand after singing "Lead, Kindly Light" as they ascended the stairs. They clamoured for an alternative scheme of relief to that at present in force which necessitated tasks being done at the workhouse. Ultimately they were induced to withdraw upon the intervention of the police.

There is a proposal that Wales should have a place on the Royal Banner of Arms (commonly, but wrongly, called the Royal Standard). In the event of the Irish settlement necessitating the removal of the Irish harp quartering, Wales has never had a place on the Royal Banner, but from the time of Henry VII. to that of James I. the Welsh Red Dragon faced an English lion as one of the two supporters of the Royal Arms. James I. instituted for the Red Dragon the uniform as representing Scotland, and from that time Wales has had no place in either the Royal Arms or the Royal Banner of Arms.

The eleventh number of The Silver Wolf, the local Boy Scouts' magazine, has the usual good pictures. There is an eulogy of the late Mr. Lan Chai-pak, a history of postage by the editor, and a capital description of our local "banyan" by R. W. Barney. The "india-rubber tree" of the plantations is not a ficus, however. The writer must have been thinking of the old gutta-percha tree, or "ramboang." There are some practical hints on the handling of bell "cats," and Scout H. Clayton describes a simple number.

At the offices of the Public Works Department yesterday afternoon, two lots of Crown land in Samshui, (Kowloon Island Lots Nos. 356 and 367) containing about 49,600 sq. ft., each, and carrying an annual rent of $228 each, were offered together for sale by public auction at the upset price of $59,400, for a term of 75 years commencing from July 1, 1898, with the option of renewal for a further term of 24 years less 3 days. There were many prospective buyers present and the bidding was brisk. The property was eventually knocked down to Messrs. Yu Cheuk-meng and W. M. Cheng for $70,000.

A burglar entered the first floor of No. 42, Kowloon City Road, last night by climbing up the water spout, and made a collection of valuables worth a couple of hundreds of dollars. He was discovered however, as he was about to depart the same way he had come. The alarm was given and the inmates rushed to the verandah to capture the intruder. In his haste to get away, the burglar tumbled over the verandah railing on to the water spout. He missed his hold and fell into the street below, moving injuries to the left wrist and legs which had to receive treatment at the Kowloon War Hospital. The "swag" done up in a parcel was recovered in the verandah, where the burglar had dropped it in his haste to get away.

COMPANY MEETING.

WM. POWELL LTD.

The annual general meeting of the above Company was held at the Hongkong Hotel, Pedder Street, at 11.30, this morning.

The Hon. Mr. C. Montague Ede presided, and there were present the Hon. Mr. A. R. Lowe, Mr. W. E. L. Shenton and Mr. J. H. Taggart (directors), Messrs. E. M. Raymond, H. J. Norton, A. V. Ward, E. W. White, H. Overy, J. C. Fisch, E. W. Alderson and T. R. Parsons (Shareholders), and H. O. Holt (secretary).

After the secretary had read the notice convening the meeting, the Chairman said:—
Gentlemen.—The Report of the Directors and the Statement of accounts for the year ending February 28, 1922, having been in your hands for some time, I will, with your permission take them a read. Your Board are pleased to be enabled to place before you the figures disclosed in the Balance Sheet, which must be considered very satisfactory in view of the difficult year passed through. There is I think only one item in the Statement of accounts to which I need refer particularly, and that is the Machinery installed in the Factory, which in the future should prove to be a very valuable asset to the Company, as we can turn out first class modern furniture quickly and at a moderate price. I have nothing further to add to what is contained in the report, and after its adoption has been recorded I shall be pleased to answer any questions that may be asked.

Mr. H. O. Holt seconded and the resolution was carried unanimously.
The Hon. Mr. C. Montague Ede, the Hon. Mr. A. R. Lowe, Mr. W. E. L. Shenton and Mr. J. H. Taggart were unanimously re-elected directors of the Company on the proposal of Mr. E. W. Alderson seconded by Mr. E. W. White.

The Chairman then proposed the re-election of Messrs. Percy Smith, Seth and Fleming as auditors at a fee of $800 per annum.

Mr. A. V. Ward seconded and the motion was carried.

The meeting terminated with the announcement that Dividend Warrants are ready and may be had on application.

Immediately afterwards and extraordinary meeting was held for the purpose of considering the following two extraordinary resolutions:—

- (1) That the provisions of the Company's Memorandum of Association with respect to its objects be altered so as to read as shown in the print signed by the Chairman of this Meeting.
- (2) That the new Articles already approved by this meeting and for the purpose of identification subscribed by the Chairman thereof, and the same are hereby adopted as the Articles of the Company to the exclusion of all in substitution for all the existing Articles thereof.

The chairman proposed both resolutions which were seconded by Mr. W. E. L. Shenton and carried unanimously.

HOMEWARD BOUND.

POLICE INSPECTORS RETIRE.

Sub-Inspectors William ("Tom") Pitt, and John Ingham, two well-known members of the Hongkong Police Force, left the Colony on well-earned retirement after long service, by the s.s. "Rhyber" yesterday.

Both Inspectors have been many years in the Colony, during which time they had made a large number of friends, many of whom were present on Blake Pier to wish them bon voyage, and a long and happy retirement in the homeland.

Inspector Pitt first joined the Force in 1900, and was made Sub-Inspector in 1913. He was well-known in sporting circles, being a keen billiardist who once held the championship of the Colony. He was also well-known and popular in boxing circles, being one of the original members of the Hongkong Boxing Association, at whose numerous tournaments he very ably performed the duties of time-keeper in conjunction with Inspector Allan of the Royal Naval Yard Police. Inspector Pitt was in charge of the Shamshui Police Station immediately before his retirement.

HOW HONGKONG JAZZES.

JUDGES AT FOX TROT COMPETITION SURPRISED.

"We had no idea that Hongkong could dance so well," declared the judges (the Misses Allen and Doris Woods) who were confronted with the difficult task of awarding the prizes in connection with the fox-trot competition organised by the management of the Kowloon Theatre last night. The competition was a distinct success; it excited extraordinary interest and drew a very big crowd of dancing enthusiasts to the theatre.

Thirty or so couples took the floor and they had the best of conditions offered them. They had what is conceded by those who know to be the best floor in Hongkong and they had splendidly timed music. A notification on the programme warned them, however, that "Competing couples are requested to note that the decisions of the judges will be based on 'straight' dancing. No credit will be given for 'stunting' in any case, and such 'stunts' as are calculated to incommode other dancers, such as exaggerated pauses, will positively disqualify."

By gradually eliminating a few couples at a time the judges finally narrowed it down to about half a dozen and the applause of the on-lookers helped them to make their difficult decision which, when announced, was received with evident satisfaction.

During the evening Mrs. Harry Woods played at the piano, with orchestral accompaniment, an alluring waltz tune, "Pearl of the Pacific" which is a piece of her own composing. She was given a hearty ovation and enthusiastically cheered at the close of what was certainly one of the best dances of the evening.

The prize-winners were:—
First and second (tied):—Lieut. Campbell-Brown and Miss F. Rosser, and Mr. Joseph and Miss MacDonald.

Third:—Mr. F. H. Farthing and Miss F. G. Ho ridge.

Special Fourth:—Mr. E. H. Stark and Miss Emee Cornell.

TOO SEVERE.

FOREMAN PUNISHES
APPRENTICE.

Before Magistrate Lindsay this morning, a foreman of Messrs Kwong Sang Hong's glass factory at Whitfield, Shamshui Road, was charged with having assaulted an apprentice.

The Magistrate pointed out to Inspector Purden, the prosecuting officer, that a foreman had a certain amount of authority over an apprentice, and could punish him for a breach of discipline.

The Inspector said that there had been many cases of beating apprentices at the factory, but most of the boys had not troubled to prosecute the defendant.

The Magistrate said that the whole point was whether or not the beating was justifiable.

The Inspector said that the boy was badly cut about the chest, back and left thigh, and also had a mark on the head.

The Magistrate: Then it amounts to whether or not the punishment was excessive.

After he had examined the wounds on the boy's body, the Magistrate asked the defendant: How did you manage to cut his skin like that?

Defendant: He was running away. Magistrate: He received a cut on the chest while running away? He appears to have been hit on the head also. You have a certain amount of justification for beating him, but you must keep within the proper bounds. You can beat him on the back, but nowhere else.

Addressing another apprentice who was present in Court to give evidence, the Magistrate asked how many apprentices there were in the factory.

The witness: Six.
Magistrate: Are you well treated as a rule?—No, we were always beaten, but not so severely as on this occasion.

The Magistrate imposed a fine of $5 and bound the defendant over for 12 months in the sum of $100.

BASKETBALL.

The basketball season was brought to a successful close yesterday afternoon when an exhibition match was played on the Chinese Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Bridge Street, between the Chinese Y. M. C. A. team, the winners of the open basketball league, prior to the distribution of the league trophies by Mrs. A. G. M. Fletcher.

That they provided excellent exercise was amply proved by yesterday's match which was very strenuously contested. The first showed a well-played first half, but fell off in the second, and the champions won comfortably by many points.

MACAO AFFAIR.

MARTIAL LAW LIFTED.

THE CANTON AGITATION.

The latest news received in Hongkong from Macao shows that the proclamation respecting martial law has been cancelled and now there remain only some slight restrictions which are enforced for the sake of maintaining order.

Regarding the demonstration which took place at Macao yesterday the Canton Times says:—
"During yesterday's heavy raining several thousands of laborers marched along the different malcos to the Governor's Yamen to present their petitions to the authorities asking government to take drastic actions toward the Macao Government. In spite of the heavy rain, several hundred women were lined up with the men nothing daunted. The representatives were interviewed by Governor Wu Ting-fang who assured the laborers that the government would take all necessary measures concerning the Macao case and asked the laborers to observe strict order in the meantime. The laborers will hold another parade in a few days."

In the course of a further editorial comment the Canton Times says:—
"Let our contemporaries realize what a protest such a slaughter would produce if it happened to take place in London. The writer was in Liverpool during the Russo-Japanese war when the Russian fleet opened fire on some fishing-smacks off the coast of Hull. This was due entirely to the mistake of a lookout who mistook the fishing boats for the Japanese Navy. Nevertheless, all England was alarmed over the incident. There were loud demands that England should declare war immediately against Russia. Bonfires, and inflammatory joratory were the order of the day. If that old England could be so aroused over a matter which was clearly an accident it is it wonder that the Cantonese should indulge in passionate denunciations against the Macao government for an outrage committed at their very arms?"

Remember, we do not say the Chinese were free from blame. They were unquestionably demonstrating in front of the police station. But in spite of this provocation there was no call for the Portuguese to open fire until they had exhausted every other means of dispersing the crowd. Nothing in the official reports tends to show that any other measures were pursued."

CHINA'S LITTLE WAR.

EXTENSIVE HOSTILITIES
IMMINENT.

PEKING, June 6.
Kao Shih-ping's army, following reverses, retreated to a point fifty miles east of Suifu. Their defeat is attributed to shortage of ammunition. The Fengtien positions were bombed by Chihli aeroplanes yesterday and it is believed that extensive hostilities are imminent.—Reuter.

A NEW MOVE.

HANKOW, June 6.
It is reliably reported that Chen-chia-yao has severed his connection with Chao-heng-ti and set up an independent government at Chengchow. Chen-chia-yao is acting to a large extent in union with Li-hsi-chun and is now recruiting new forces with a view to rendering assistance to Li-hsi-chun in an advance against the North.—Reuter.

PEKING OFFICIALS ON STRIKE.

PEKING, June 6.
As a result of yesterday's order seventy minor officials in the Ministry of Justice have been dismissed. The striking staff of the ministry of the Interior have now all resumed.

CHANG TSO-LIN'S NEW LA-BEL.

It is reported that Chang Tso-lin has assumed the title of Commander-in-chief of the Manchurian Defence Force.—Reuter.

JAPANESE POLITICS.

TOKYO, June 6.
The Seiyukai this afternoon decided to expel Nakahashi, Motoda and two others from the party as being responsible for the present crisis.—Reuter.

BOWEL COMPLAINT IN CHILDREN.

During the summer months mothers should watch for any unusual loose stools of the child's bowels. When given prompt attention, at this time serious trouble may be avoided. Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon. For sale by all Chemists and Druggists.

SANITARY BOARD.

ETERNAL PROBLEM
DISCUSSED.

At the fortnightly meeting of the Hongkong Sanitary Board held yesterday afternoon, a sub-committee consisting of the Hon. Mr. Chou Shou-sun, Dr. G. D. R. Black and Dr. W. W. Pease (M.O.H.), was appointed to report upon applications received for permission to waive the provisions of Section 173 of the Public Health and Buildings Ordinance in so far as that section would prohibit the construction of awnings over ventilation spaces between back-to-back houses.

Other business dealt with by the Board concerned the waterfurnish system.
Dr. F. M. G. Ozorio pointed out that the Government was a long time answering the Board's inquiry whether public water supplies were sufficient to supply the probable requirements of the Peak in this matter, and gave notice that he would move that the Government be asked to supply water from public mains to houses in distant parts of the Colony. He remarked that it was impossible for wells to be sunk at many of these houses and he thought they might eventually be supplied from the mains.

An application for providing 40 water closets in a block of ten houses in Nathan Road was refused, the objection being that the effluent would pass into the Yamnati typhoon shelter.

Another application for water closets on Lot No. 160, Victoria Road above Telegraph Pass, was also refused, as the Board "did not want them to use bath-water if it could be avoided. However, the secretary was instructed to inform the applicant that the Board would favour a proposal to use sea-water."

BEAUMONT'S BANKRUPTCY.

TODAY'S PUBLIC EXAMINATION.

STORY OF RICE BOOM.

E. A. Beaumont came before the Chief Justice, Sir William Ross Davies, sitting in Bankruptcy Court this morning for his public examination.

Answering the Chief Justice debtor said he was the owner of the firm of Beaumont & Co.

The Official Receiver: You came out in 1910 for Sander Wisler & Co.—Yes.

You were then 19 years old—Yes.

You had five years with them and three with Jardine Matheson—Yes.

In 1918 you decided to start business yourself—Yes.

Your business was export, chiefly rice—Yes. I began solely in rice.

At that time there was a considerable shortage in rice—There was a considerable demand for rice at the time and there was a shortage of freight—Yes.

In the first year rice did not rise much and you did a modest business—Yes.

About March or April 1919, rice began to boom considerably and you did a large business—Yes.

Debtor in answer to further questions explained how he dealt with orders and said they made four or five per cent profit. They made more money in 1919 because business increased.

The Official Receiver: In 1919 you were doing export business mostly in rice and making a profit—Yes.

In August 1919 rice was strong, you were doing big business, you felt you were well off and decided to take home leave—I went on October 24.

At that time were you doing export business only—I felt that I had enough to do import business I began about May 1919.

That required more credits—I was had to put up a cert in amount of margin to open up credits.

The need for credits was partly the cause of your undoing in the following year. You undertook piece goods—I was.

Debtor was next questioned regarding his leave. He said he went via America as he had some business to do there. He was kept in touch with the market and in about April 1920 the price of rice and the value of the dollar began to fall.

The Official Receiver: You went to Europe—Yes.

On business—Partly on business and this was my first holiday since I came to China.

At the beginning of 1920 everything was all right—I was in a very good position and had connections all over the world.

In the spring of 1920 you found that prices were beginning to drop—I and the result would be—I—No one knew then whether it would be a big drop or was merely a fluctuation. It dropped from $21 to about $9 per picul.

There was a slump—Yes.

You were left in for a deal in rice for which you did not get paid—I—For which I did not get paid or had authorized.

The transaction was done without your knowledge—Entirely.

You authorized it—I—They had full power of attorney but they should have referred it to me by cable for a big item like that.

Did you tell them to refer to you—I didn't give any special instructions. I gave them strict instructions not to speculate.

You regarded it as speculation—I—Yes there was speculation in it on the part of San Francisco.

You were left with the rice and had to sell it at a loss—I—Yes. These American buyers do not consider business as English do and they probably got out of it in great ways.

What was the amount of the deal?—About $24,000 gold.

Witness went on to say that he had another debt of $50,000 in South America over a deal in land. He was in Paris when he heard that the firm was financially embarrassed. He at once got a passage and came to Hongkong through San Francisco. He came that way in order to see what he could do. He found that he could do nothing at all. On arriving at Hongkong he went to his banks to see if he could get any financial help but was not successful. At that time he had considerable liabilities in consequence of the rice and land deals and piece goods. There were some contracts that he could not take up. At the time he entered into these piece goods contracts he thought he could get credit. If he had not thought this he would never have entered into the contracts.

The Chief Justice: Did you know that you were insolvent?

Debtor—I did not know that I was insolvent. If I could have arranged a loan I could have put some people off and arranged for margins.

Resuming his examination the Official Receiver questioned debtor as to his actions in Hongkong on his return. Debtor said he tried to get assistance here but failing that he went to Shanghai. He wanted somebody to come in either as a partner or to put up a loan.

You have promised to do what you can—Yes.

You learned in Shanghai that a receiving order had been made—Yes.

Did you think Shanghai was a better place to raise the wind—Yes. Shanghai is a bigger market than Hongkong in every way.

You did not succeed and some time later you got an appointment—I—Yes, as manager of the North China Produce Company.

At a comparatively small salary I suppose—Yes, 400 taels.

You did not feel in a position to make any proposition to your creditors—I—I could not. I had to send 300 taels to my family.

You went to Shanghai after being a week in Hongkong, did you communicate with your creditors—I—I did not communicate with them because a receiving order was made and everything was taken out of my hands. I have seen them in Shanghai and have discussed things with them.

Up to the present you have had no better luck; you are still in the old position—I—I have had Chinese approach me, but nothing so far. They are waiting till these proceedings are over. My creditors are all friends whom I have known for many years.

You have no definite proposal to make at this time—I—I hope to make one in a short time.

The Chief Justice to the Official Receiver—The debtor has assisted you in every way—Yes, everything he could do. He has concealed nothing to my knowledge my Lord.

At this stage Mr. Timson intimated that he was appearing for the Netherlands Bank and the Banque de l'Indo Chine.

Mr. Vaux, representing the firm of M. J. Brandenstein of San Francisco, requested permission to put questions to the debtor.

The Chief Justice acceded to the request and Mr. Vaux elicited from the debtor that in 1919 he sold to Brandenstein and Co., about 1,000 tons of rice.

Mr. Vaux: On receiving the firm's offer you bought the rice I suppose?

Debtor: It was bought, freight was booked, exchange closed and everything and I intended to ship the cargo.

Did you ship it—I—I shipped part and we had had our application for the shipment of the balance granted. The rice was then seized by the Government. I have the certificate signed by Mr. Claud Severn. Seizing the rice I understand they are claiming from me a certain amount as profit I received from the Government.

I did not allow the claim because I thought they ought to have claimed from the Government. We wanted to ship the rice but it was

"EMPRESS OF CANADA."

GOVERNOR'S VISIT YESTERDAY.

His Excellency the Governor, accompanied by his secretary, Mr. Eric Rice, and his aide-de-camp, Capt. Neville, visited the "Empress of Canada" yesterday. Local people attending included Hon. Mr. A. G. M. Fletcher, Hon. Mr. E. R. Halliwell, Mr. S. B. C. Ross, Commander C. W. Beckwith and Capt. E. D. C. Wolfe. During the afternoon there was a continuous stream of visitors. Music was given by the band of the Kings Regiment.

BANKRUPTCY COURT.

The Chief Justice, Sir William Ross Davies, sat in Bankruptcy this morning.

On the application for discharge of Lam Kin Sang, the Official Receiver, Mr. G. N. Orme, said that 45 per cent had been paid and another 12 per cent could be paid from the money the Official Receiver had in hand granted.

In the case of Cheung Wai Tong, trading as Kam Wah and Co. application was made for the rescission of receiving order. The official Receiver said there were no assets and the debtor had absconded. The order was rescinded.

A similar application was made in the case of the Mee Fong firm on the ground that the assets were negligible. Granted.

Tai Hing Yuen Kee was adjudicated bankrupt.

INTERPORT POLO.

Hongkong will make another bid for the Keswick Polo Cup. This year the annual interport match will again be played in Shanghai Shanghai, and has been fixed for June 22 and 24. A strong team has been chosen, and Hongkong is pinning great hopes on it, of bringing back the cup which Shanghai won last year in convincing style.

The following is the Hongkong team which will sail by the "Empress of Russia" on June 13, together with the names of the ponies, which will be sent by the "Kwang Sang" to-morrow.

Captain Fisher (1); Fash, Surprise, Tonic.

Mr. J. F. H. Bibby (2); Springer, Fighting Tiger, Winterlight.

Mr. C. C. Boyd (3, Captain): After Dark, Ringwood, Devonport.

Captain Neville (back): Benjamin, Han River, Cream.

The a.s. "Grands Gaard" (Kerr Steamship Line) for which Messrs Shewan Tomes are agents is due here to-morrow and leaves for New York on June 11.

seized by the Government during the rice riots in 1919.

Did you know the Government were seizing it?—We cabled to Brandenstein.

Did you approach the Government and say you had rice?—The Government sent a circular round and we had to declare the rice.

Did you approach the Government first or they you?—They approached us.

Did you offer this rice for sale to the Government?—No.

What did the Government pay you?—Debtor objected to answering this question as he considered it was no business of his client's.

The price for contract 669 was $10.47, you sold it at $14.75—I cannot say.

Would you say the figures are wrong?—I cannot say they are wrong. Whatever the Government paid for the rice was nothing to do with Brandenstein.

On contract 670 the contract price was $13.98 and the price paid was $14.75. Can you deny that—I shall have to look up my books.

Can you remember whether you made a profit or loss?—Whether I made a profit or loss is nothing to do with Brandenstein.

I am asking you if you did—I must refuse to answer.

His Lordship told debtor to answer the question and he replied "I should say that we made a profit."

His Lordship: Do you know—I haven't looked into it. It happened three years ago.

Speaking from memory—I should say we made a profit.

Mr. Vaux: In a letter it is claimed that you made a profit of $51,000—I was not here when that letter was received.

Do you agree with the figures—I did not accept the claim so I did not go into the figures carefully.

Answering further questions witness said he considered the action of the Government constituted a case of force majeure and that what was done with the rice was beyond his control. It cancelled the contracts.

The public examination was then closed.

DIVER'S FIGHT WITH DEVILFISH.

Advice from Tacoma (Washington State) describes an encounter between Mr. Walter McCray, a diver well known from Alaska to California, and a giant devil fish in Puget Sound. From this account, it would appear that while the diver was under water he was attacked by the monster, which wound its tentacles round him so tightly that he was unable to reach his knife, while one of the tentacles threatened to cut off the air supply. Mr. McCray, through the submarine telephone, called for a short steel bar, with which he finally managed to pierce the monster's body. The men above ultimately drew both diver and devil fish up to the surface, still locked in the death struggle. Their bodies were so intertwined that the rescuers were unable to use their pistols. However, they attacked the monster with other weapons with so much effect that it finally released its grip and slid back into the waters beneath.

NEVER NEGLECT
A WOUND
OR SORE.
NEGLECT of even the tiniest break in the skin leaves the way open for dangerous and invisible germs to set up blood-poisoning and disease. When that happens there is no telling how harmful the consequences may be—an amputated finger, a crippled hand, even death. The safest plan is to always keep a box of Zam-Buk handy, and immediately dress every cut, scratch, or other skin injury with this unique germicide. By this means complications are prevented and healthy healing secured. Owing to its purity and herbal composition, Zam-Buk has a power for destroying and repelling skin disease which no ordinary ointment can possibly have. In addition to special soothing and pain-killing qualities, Zam-Buk has very powerful antiseptic germicidal properties, which are a bulwark against blood-poisoning, tetanus, and ulceration. It is so comprehensive in its medicinal action that after thoroughly purifying a wound or sore, Zam-Buk binds the place by stimulating the growth of healthy new skin. *Obtainable of all chemists and druggists in Hong Kong, Shanghai, and elsewhere. HONGKONG UNIVERSITY. CONFERRING OF DEGREES.

YESTERDAY'S CEREMONY.
Yesterday afternoon the University of Hong Kong held a congregation for the conferring of degrees. The function was quite formal, owing to the fact that no honorary graduates were presented. The attendance was therefore mostly confined to students who were enthusiastic in their demonstrations as the graduates were presented. The congregation was presided over by H.E. the Governor and amongst those present were Lady Brunsford, Rev. J. T. Holman, Rev. G. T. Waldegrave, Rev. Fr. Martin, Dr. Gladys Turner, Mr. W. E. L. Shenton and Mr. Eric Rice.

PROCESSION.
H.E. the Chancellor; The Vice-Chancellor and the Acting Treasurer; the Dean, Faculty of Medicine and the Dean, Faculty of Engineering; the Registrar; the Hon. Mr. A. G. M. Fletcher and Hon. Col. Nicholson; Sir William Rees Davies and Hon. Mr. J. H. Kemp; the Right Rev. the Bishop of Victoria and the Right Rev. Bishop Pozzani; Hon. Mr. E. A. Irving and Hon. Mr. Chow Shou Son; Hon. Mr. T. L. Perkins and Hon. Mr. E. V. D. Farr; Hon. Mr. A. O. Lang and Sir Robert Ho Tung; Mr. Ho Fook and Hon. Mr. H. W. Bird; Prof. R. A. Redmond and Prof. H. G. Easle; Mr. Chan Sin Ki and Mr. Ng Hon Tai; Rev. C. B. Shann and Rev. Dr. T. W. Pearce; Mr. Ho Kwong and Mr. S. W. To; Dr. C. Forsyth and Dr. O. Marriott; Prof. G. T. Byrne and Prof. D. C. H. Florence; Dr. O. W. McKenny and Dr. R. M. Gibson; Prof. W. Vickers and Prof. C. Y. Wang; Mr. M. P. Talati and Mr. R. H. Kote-wall; Prof. R. K. M. Simpson and Prof. M. E. Rolley; Mr. H. B. L. Dowbiggin, and Mr. McK. Kon Sang; Mr. J. R. Wood and Mr. D. G. M. Bernard; Dr. C. M. Heasley and Mr. J. Ring; Mr. M. Danaher and Mr. R. Robertson; Mr. R. W. Barney and Rev. J. Romanis Lee; Dr. H. B. Balcan and Dr. G. H. Thomas; Mr. Lai Hui Chai and Mr. Au Tai Tin; Dr. J. Fenton and Mr. B. G. Birch.

LIST OF GRADUATES.
The following graduates entitled to the degrees of Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery were presented by the Dean of the Faculty of Medicine (Dr. K. H. Digby):—Cheah Keng Seng, Cheam Kim Cheang, Ng Cheong Yew (Wu Chang Yeh), On Ah Keong, Phoon Seck Foo, D. Kumarasamy Pillai, Shih Wei Hsu and Zia I Ding.

The graduates entitled to the Degrees of Bachelor of Science (Engineering) were presented by Prof. Middleton Smith as follows:—Choo Pek Eng, Keng Shu Chih, Ning Nee, Shih Chih Jen, Teang Ding Zau, Wong Chi Kit, Yu Kwei Hsin and Chee Chuk Lum (in absentia).

The graduates on whom Degrees of Bachelor of Arts were conferred were presented by Prof. W. Brown, as follows:—Chiao Yu Chang, Chow Chang Lam, Ho Ka Chi, Hu Ji Hsiang, Kuo Ping Ho, Ling Andrew, Lo Ki San, Lo Ying Tsung, Shen Yee, Tan Chis Chan, Lee Foo, Tan Man Lung, Tsui Ping Tong and Woo Ting Shao. The Chancellor then declared the Congregation closed.

THE "MA'KEE" SPIRIT.

The "maskee spirit" is almost indefinable, "maskee" being one of those words which are easy of comprehension, but rigidly defy etymological dissection. The nearest we can get to a definition is "spooky" or "indifference," both of which words do no justice to "maskee." The newcomer's first addition to his vocabulary is invariably "man-man," his second is "maskee." "Maskee" is an infectious disease. Few of us are immune. It reaches its most virulent stage in summer when the humidity is high and all intellectual interest in many things that really matter dwindles to vanishing point. Even the energetic taipan—an example to the ambitious employee—often becomes a victim. He is reluctant to admit it, but the symptoms are always revealed—not like a serious illness which cannot be diagnosed until the patient has been on his back for a week. There is one effective antidote to the "maskee spirit" insofar as the healthy person is concerned; the assertion of the will. People who give way to the "maskee spirit" are usually those who are unable to exercise persistent concentration to insist upon the ascendancy of mind over matter.—Shanghai Times.

LAUNCH STRIKE.

JAPAN PAPERS COMMENT.

Commenting on the launch strike, the Japan Chronicle says:—"Owners at Hongkong are still labouring under the delusion that strikes are a matter of intimidation. The latest strike, that of the launchmen, found the launch-owners protesting that the men did not know for what they were striking and that they were perfectly satisfied with their present wages. In these circumstances, of course, all that was required was a little fatherly advice to the men to show them how they were being bamboozled by the Guild and what generous offers the launch-owners had made. Unfortunately, however, for the success of this scheme it was found later that nearly all the men had left the Colony, presumably being afraid that they would be shot over if they stayed too long. The ferries between Hongkong and Kowloon seem to have been carried on with considerable difficulty, although naval ratings were put in charge. Only two ferry boats could be manned, and the naval men found the navigation of the harbour, with its ever changing and baffling currents, could not be learned all at once. Accidents and delays were of frequent occurrence, and one ferry took over an hour to get alongside and then only did so with the help of a naval cutter. After this it is rather amusing to see that a correspondent writes to the Hongkong Daily Press suggesting that the only way to break the constant strikes is to have a modicum of skilled labour in Hongkong, presumably of foreign extraction."

OBITUARY.

MR. HUGH ANDERSON.

The death occurred suddenly at the French Hospital, Causeway Bay, on Monday evening, of Mr. Hugh Anderson, a member of the staff of Messrs Connell Bros. Co.

The deceased who was 35 years of age had lived some time in Hongkong, and was very popular with his colleagues of the firm, as well as with all he came in contact either in business or socially. Death claimed him suddenly after a long illness. The deceased was unmarried, but leaves behind him a widowed mother, two brothers, Mr. C. G. Anderson and Dr. H. M. Anderson, M. D. (Edin) and numerous other relations both here and abroad, for whom much sympathy will be felt.

The funeral took place at Happy Valley last evening, and was largely attended.

Among those who sent wreaths were the mother, brothers, sisters and cousins, Phyllis and Donald, Hon. Mr. and Mrs. Chow Shou Son, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Conrad, Mr. P. Abesser, Mr. P. M. Ashton, Mr. Au Hang Cho, Mr. Samuel M. Chum, Mr. Chos Po Sien, Mr. Cheng Tsei, Mr. Kenneth Chan, Mr. Chow Wa Cho, Messrs. Connell Bros. Co., The Chinese staff of Connell Bros. Co., The Committee and Members of the Chinese Club, Mr. A. E. Edwards, Mr. Fok Ho U, Mr. Walter Ford, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Grose, Mr. A. P. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Ho Fook, Mr. K. Hung, Mr. and Mrs. Ho Wing, Mr. J. M. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Ho Kwong, Mr. and Mrs. Ho Leung, Mr. Ho Cheuk, Mr. and Mrs. C. Honkey, Mr. Ho Shai Kit, Mr. and Mrs. Ho Ki, Mr. and Mrs. Ho Lu, Mr. Henry S. Hall, Mr. Ter Yee, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hall, Mr. Stirling Jex, Dr. K. L. Kwan, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Kotewall, Mr. and Mrs. Lo Cheung Shui, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Lo, Mr. M. H. Lo, Mr. J. Litton, Dr. Edward Law, Mr. Li Wai Sang, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lyon, Mr. H. C. Mak, Mr. Mok Hing, Mr. Ng Sze Kwong, the Committee and Members of the Queen's College Old Boys' Association, Mr. A. E. Roberts, Mr. See Kon Chi, Mr. Tai Ming Tak, Dr. C. G. Wang, Mr. Wong Tak Kwong, Mr. B. Wong Tape, Mr. Wong Lai Sang, Mr. Wong Po Kung, Mr. Wong Kam Ying, Mr. Wong Pang, Mr. Yeung Shuk Pi and Mr. G. N. Young.

The proposal of the French Indo-China authorities to increase the import duties on Oriental goods has elicited opposition from Japanese traders, and the Tokyo Chamber of Commerce has sent to the Foreign Office, a written representation on the subject, in which it says the proposed revision would undermine the Japanese trade in Indo-China, subjecting as it does ivory goods to five times, beer to four times and cotton, yarn to five times as high duties as at present. The statement advises the Government to request the French authorities to postpone the revision until a commercial treaty clause with the most favoured nation can be negotiated.

SHANGHAI TELEPHONES.

WARMLY CRITICIZED.

At the Shanghai Telephone Company's annual meeting on May 30 a shareholder criticized as follows:—"Mr. A. W. Burdick—Under ordinary circumstances, I presume we could congratulate the directors on presenting us with a very fine report, but, to my mind, they have lost sight of the objects of this company. We are not here to make big profits and to be an investment company. If I remember rightly, when the company was first started, the idea was that it was to be a mutual company in the true sense of the word. We were to have an efficient service at a minimum cost and dividends were to be kept down to the reasonable figure of 8 per cent."

This year you have done two things, you have made a great deal of money and you have given us a poorer service than ever. I do not believe in destructive criticism, but I would respectfully suggest to the directors that, if they paid less attention to the money-making side of the company and more attention to giving us a better service, they would please us all and cause less trouble to the directors themselves. The trouble here, I should say, is lack of supervision and we are in want of properly trained operators. We are all ready to admit that you have a hard task to deal with your Chinese, but I think you should go more thoroughly into the question of getting a better class of Chinese."

To my mind, the Chinese can work as anybody, but you have got to pay them well. I think the matter could be settled if you would devise some system of paying your Chinese better and arrange so that a man would know that, at the end of a certain number of years if he had given full satisfaction, he could retire with a certain competence. You must get a better class of men and if more attention is paid to that we shall have a better service."

I do not know how you are situated with regard to supervisors and whether they are brought out from home, but, if they are not, I respectfully suggest that an effort should be made to get first-class people with such training in big exchanges that they will be able to tackle the problems which present themselves here every day. If you do that you will see a better service."

Going back to the question of big dividends, I think you have lost sight of the fact that the company was supposed to be a mutual company and that, if you charged too much for services, subscribers could look for a reduction in the rates. There is no necessity to pay 12 per cent. profit. However nice this may be—and probably some will want the money—I maintain that we ought to have a reduction in the rates if we are going to make all that money. At the present moment we are paying very highly for an inefficient service."

The Settlement has lately grown enormously: houses, mills and factories are extending outside what is known as the old Settlement limit and yet you still maintain the rule that a user of the telephone outside the Settlement has no right to a discount even if he is a shareholder. That is another point the directors might consider. It is a very important point and has caused a good deal of dissatisfaction. I believe you have received a letter from the British Chamber of Commerce and I have been asked by my colleagues on the committee to express their dissatisfaction with the telephone service as now rendered. An efficient telephone service is very necessary in a business community like this and I hope that by next year we shall be able to congratulate you on an improvement."

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

MEETING ON THURSDAY.

A meeting of the Legislative Council will be held on Thursday afternoon when the second reading of the four new bills that were introduced by the Attorney General at last week's meeting will be dealt with. Besides that there will be the questions given notice of by the Hon. Mr. A. B. Dove about the increased telephone charges.

American members of the legal and other professions recently gave welcome to Mr. Leonard G. Husar newly appointed United States District Attorney, who arrived in Shanghai to take up his post by the Admiral Line steamer "President Jefferson." Mr. Husar, who takes up his duties immediately, was entertained at dinner by Major G. P. Holcomb, retiring U. S. District Attorney, and at a bed-stead dinner given in his honour at the Pootung Hotel by Mr. H. D. Dodge.

BANK ROBBERY.

A MYSTERY STILL.

The Yokohama Specie Bank robbery mystery is still engaging the attention of the Police, who have a very stiff proposition in front of them. After several hours' work, the investigators are still where they began. Not a single clue has been found anywhere, a China Mail reporter who made enquiries at Police Headquarters was informed this morning "He was assured that the rumour which was current yesterday, that detectives have found finger-prints on the strongroom door was untrue and the rumour that a Chinese servant had absconded immediately after the discovery of the robbery, was described as 'wild and unfair.' Investigations are proceeding."

Of 27 cases of plague notified yesterday five were fatal.

The Third Court of the Courts of Justice was used for the first time by a Judge this morning. In consequence of the first court being renovated the Chief Justice, Sir William Rees Davies sat in Bankruptcy in the Third Court. Usually this Court is used to house various clerks of the Official Receiver's Department and as a store for old documents.

VICAR REPLIES TO CRITICS.

When Canon Meyrick, vicar of St. Peter Mancroft, Norwich, recently attended the opening of a new picture house and offered prayer, his unconventional action aroused much comment, and he made a reply to his critics at the Easter Vestry and Church Council. Mr. Beattie, senior churchwarden, presented an Easter offering of £169 to Canon Meyrick who, in acknowledging the gift, said he knew he had been a little unconventional, and had gone out of his way to do things which some folks did not. "I know," he added, "there are some people who have criticised my action in the parish of trying to bring the spirit of Christ into the pleasures of the people but whether it be the Archbishop or anybody else who protests against such a thing, I am absolutely unrepentant, and thank God I was able to do it. I am thankful to know I have many loyal people behind me."

Amongst those who left the Colony to-day by the s.s. "Empress of Canada" were Commodore and Mrs. W. Bowden Smith and Lt.-Com. and Mrs. B. H. Stern.

NEW B. I. CARGO SHIP.

LAUNCH OF THE "DURENDA."
CARGO SHIP FOR THE B.I.S.N. CO.

The second motor vessel built to the order of the British India Steam Navigation Co. was launched from the yard of Robert Duncan and Co., Port Glasgow, recently. The hull is very similar to that of the "Domala," but there are some modifications to the machinery.

The length is 465 ft. overall, the beam 58 ft. and the length b.p. 450 ft. In the "Durenda" two eight-cylinder North British Diesel engines will be installed, with cylinders 26½ ins. diameter and 47 ins. stroke, having a speed of revolution of 96 per minute. These motors are similar to those which were installed in the motorship "Hauraki" and differ from the "Domala's" propelling plant in the fact that they each drive their own twin air compressors. In the "Domala" the air compressors were applied to separate Diesel engines in that a higher s.h.p. might be developed, so as to give the vessel a higher speed than otherwise would be possible. As a result the "Durenda" will be a slightly slower vessel than the "Domala," and will not doubt attain a speed of about 12½ to 13 knots of the sister vessel.

Electric power will be used throughout for auxiliary purposes, and a couple of generators are to be installed in the engine-room, each driven by a six-cylinder North British Diesel engine. There will be a single auxiliary air compressor, driven by a 360 h.p. electric motor built by the Electric Construction Co. The steering gear will be of the Williams-Jannet electro-hydraulic type, and 12 electric winches are to be installed on deck. The "Durenda" will carry about 10,000 tons of cargo. Like the "Domala," she will trade between London and Indian ports and will have bunker space sufficient to enable her to make a round voyage without taking on fresh fuel.

Another vessel is being built for the British India Steam Navigation Co. with the same dimensions as the "Durenda," and equipped with similar machinery, but she is to be a passenger and cargo ship. It is anticipated that she will be completed before the end of the year.

Callus? Peel It Off Quickly!
 Nothing On Earth Like "Geta-It"
 For Corns and Calluses.

A spot of thickened skin on the bottom of your foot which so often makes walking an agony, is easily removed by wonderful "Geta-It" as

Callus Comes On Like Banana Skin any hard or soft corn anywhere on your foot. Look at this picture.
 A few drops of "Geta-It" did the work. The callus comes loose from the true flesh. No irritation whatsoever. You peel the callus right off just like a banana skin—perfectly painlessly. "Geta-It" does the same thing to any corn, without the use of sticky plaster, irritating salve, grease, ointment or troublesome tape. There is no trouble—no knife, no scissors to use. "Geta-It" is used by millions, because it is common sense, and it never fails. Try it, you'll love it.

"Geta-It" is the guaranteed money-back corn remover, the only sure way, costs but a trifle, all chemists and stores. Made by C. Lawrence &
 Co., Chicago, U. S. A.
